Subject: Pool report 2

At 11:20 am, motorcade arrived at Bunch of Grapes bookstore in Vinyard Haven. President, Malia and Sasha went inside to browse.

Local pooler Gayle Fee of the Boston Herald describes Bunch of Grapes as a "quaint" independent bookstore that would send books to former President Bill Clinton when he vacationed on the island back when.

Main Street was blocked off for the president's visit. Hundred of people stood behind yellow police tape to get a glimpse of potus Potus and the girls left at 11:40 am. Crowd cheered as they got into their car. Potus carried two brown shopping bags.
He wore a White Sox hat, sunglasses, jeans, sandals and a navy blue polo shirt.

[REDACTED]

We're rolling to next destination.
We understand Mr. Burton will tell what the president purchased.
