Dear Mr. Eggleston:

I write in support of the nomination of Jennifer Choe Groves for a judgeship on the U.S. Court of International Trade.

As a longtime advocate for women, I have found it a pleasure to work with Ms. Groves on the board of Legal Momentum since 2010. She has been a strong and active member of that board, and has given of her time and energy to support the many projects of Legal Momentum.

Although the Legal Momentum board is not a contentious one, Ms. Groves' thoughtful dialogue, calm demeanor and measured tone have added much to our deliberations, and lead me to believe that she would have an excellent judicial temperament and be an asset to the Court of International Trade.

If you have any questions, or would like any additional information, please do not hesitate to call on me.

With warm regards,
