Dear Mr. President:

I would like to extend my deep thanks for the wonderful gift you gave me during your State Visit in January. In so many ways, President Abraham Lincoln made the story of America possible, and your thoughtfulness is much appreciated.

Your visit demonstrated the growing exchanges and understanding between the United States and China. As our two nations continue to strengthen ties, it is gratifying to know we can work toward our shared hopes for the future and lay the foundation for cooperation in the decades to come.

Thank you, again, for your kind gift. I wish you all the best.

Sincerely,
