Dear Philip:

Thank you for your service as Ambassador to the Federal Republic of Germany.

Serving our Nation at home and abroad requires a deep and abiding patriotism. Please know I am extremely proud of the dedicated professionals who labor tirelessly to represent the American people, advance our national interests and values, and deepen understanding across the globe.

Your devotion to building a more peaceful and prosperous world is inspiring, and I appreciate the personal sacrifice you and your family have made in this endeavor. As you take on new challenges, I wish you all the best.

Sincerely,

[POTUS AP]

May 2, 2013

Dear Mr. President:

It has been the greatest honor for me to serve my country as the American Ambassador to the Federal Republic of Germany since August, 2009. During my tenure, I have witnessed the great respect and admiration you inspire and the deepening of our transatlantic relationships you have forged. We benefit every day from the goodwill you continue to create.

I thank you most sincerely for the confidence you have shown by according me this appointment as your representative. I am, and remain, humbled beyond words. With this letter, I respectfully submit my resignation to be effective, with your blessing, on July 6, 2013 and, in any event, at your pleasure. Regardless of where my future plans take me, I will be there for you and the country and will continue to look for opportunities to serve.

My very best,

The President,
The White House,
Washington, D.C. 20500.

Dear Philip:

This is just a quick note to thank you for your hard work in my Administration, and for all you brought to the Department of State.

Serving the American people in one of our Nation's most demanding environments requires a deep and abiding patriotism. I am grateful for your commitment through long hours and personal sacrifice, and I appreciate your devotion to building a better, brighter future for all Americans.

As you take on new challenges, I hope you look back with pride on your contributions to my Administration. I wish you all the best.

Sincerely,

Two things on this one:

- 1) This amb. was already in the system for a gift TY and they had the middle initial "D." LMK if I should remove it b/c it wasn't on our incoming
- 2) This template wasn't set up to pull organization name so it didn't on this address but it had on the exec. clerk version. I think its weird to do org name in the address block here - what do you think?
Agreed
